THE KNOXVILLE WHIG. Knoxville, Tenn., March 7, 1866.

A WAR ANECDOTE .- Colonel Von Borcke, who is writing for Blackwood the story of his adventures as aid to the rebel General Stuart, during the war, tells the following story, which being at his own expense, is probably true:

One of the Yankee officers, who, as I was later informed, was the Colonel of a regiment that effected its escape from Harper's Ferry, had attracted my attention by his gallantry and the excellent dispositions he made of his troops. I saw him again galloping very near us on a handsome gray horse, quickly discovering our weak points, and posting and instructing his men accordingly. After having left him undisturbed for some time, I thought it necessary to put | REAPERS. a stop to his proceedings, and selecting a couple of my infantrymen, who had been PLOWS, pointed out to me as the best shots, I made across the open space in front of our lines directly toward him. Having arrived within reasonable distance, I ordered my sharpshooters to fire at the daring Colonel, who was moving along at an easy gallop, without having paid me the slightest attention. After several bullets had whistled quite close to him, he suddenly halted, and turning around, advanced a few steps and made me a military salute in the most graceful manner possible. Then calling out to one | ing the following valuable machines of his men to hand him a carbine, he raised the weapon, took a deliberate aim at me, and sent his ball so close to my head that I thought it had carried away a lock of my hair. I saluted him now on my part, and wheeling round quietly, both of us rode back to our respective lines.

DESTITUTION IN ALABAMA.—The Huntsville Independent, of the 17th, says: Hon. M. H. Cruikshank, of Talladega, Commissioner appointed by the Governor to aid in the distribution of supplies to the destitute, is at present in our city. He informs us that 5,000 rations daily will be sent to our city for distribution to the destitute in this District, composed of the counties of Madison, Jackson, Marshall, Blount, Cherokee, DeKalb, Limestone, Lauderdale, Lawrence, Franklin, Morgan, Marion, Winston, by persons appointed for that purpose in each county.

There is much destitution in North Alabama, and we are glad to see that the Gov- tail. ernment has shown a disposition to relieve the wants of the poor. We hope the supplies will be properly distributed, and care taken that no one not entitled shall receive them. We understand that supplies have not yet reached here, but will in a short time, as they have been shipped from Nashville. Notice will be given to the Probate Judges of each county, when they can send for them.

A NEGRO DUEL .- If any body doubts the capacity of the negro, the following paragraph will dissipate his skepticism, especially if he be a believer in the code of chivalry:

An "affair of honor" came off Saturday at Hutchinson's Island, near Savannah, between knights of the cleaver. One negro butcher insulted another, when a challenge followed. The principals, with seconds, repaired to Hutchinson's Island, when they blazed away at each other, and succeeded in wounding one of the seconds, but escaped without any bodily injury to themselves. This occurrence satisfied the wounded honor of the colored gemmen, and the whole party made friends. After drinking two bottles of whisky, and playing several city, and were arrested at the market Sat- time. urday evening by a file of soldiers, and confined in the barracks. Verily, these are queer times we live in.

At the marriage, in Paris, of the Princess Murat with the Dake de Mouchy, more than one thousand carriages were, at one time, drawn up in the court-yard of the Tuileries. The carriage belonging to the Princess Metternich was the most beautiful of them all, and is thus mentioned by a correspondent: "This state carriage of Vienna build-high on its springs, of bright yellow, both within and without-was calculated admirably to show off the violet and white WOODEN WARE, &c., &c., &c. toilet of the Princess. The hammer-cloth, HUBS. of stout blue velvet, trimmed with silver bullion fringe, and adorned with the Metternich arms, wrought in solid silver-the two tall lackeys, with their gold-headed canes and bright yellow liveries, the tricornes and Mechlin lace, jabots, and ruffles-all produced a simultaneous roar of delight from the gaping crowd."

SOLDIERS LOOK AT THIS .-- It may not generally be known that the War Department never gives a copy of a discharge to a soldier who has lost or sold the original docupreserve papers of so much value, and as a remedy in case they should be lost, we suggest to the soldier the propriety of having them properly recorded at the County Clerk's office, so that copies can be obtained certified to by the Clerk, by which the soldier may realize bounties, land grants or any other privileges that Congress may enact. Get your discharges recorded immediately; it will save you trouble should you lose the original.

FRANKLIN'S EPITAPH .-- The following is the epitaph which Dr. Franklin wrote on himself. It is full of faith and humor:

The body BENJAMIN FRANKLAN

printer (like the cover of an old book its contents torn out and stripped of its fettering and gilding,) lies here, food for worms yet the work itself shall not be lost, for it will (as he believed) appear once more,

in a new and more beautiful edition corrected and amended The Author.

DENTISTRY.

DR. J. FOUCHE, Dentist, A FTER AN ABSENCE OF TWO years, has returned to his old office in Knoxville, greatly improved in facilities and information for the practice of his profession.

DR. P. H. CARDWELL HAS THIS DAY EFFECTED AN arrangement by which he will be able in the future to supply all persons who may desire, from a single to a full set of teeth, on the VULCANIZED RUBBER BASE. Being the latest improvement in our profession, and having been sufficiently tested to warrant its utility, we take pleasure in recommending it as being far preferable in many respects to any other base heretofore used. It can be used in many in-stances where all other materials fail. No one need, therefore, despair. Call on me, give me your work and I will demonstrate these facts.

Remember that a full set of teeth on this method cost only half what they would on gold, and yet preferable in all respects.

m5tf Respectfully, P. H. CARDWELL.
